Thanks!

Don't see images, though...

ok: here's something i could use your help with.

your brief refers to a businessweek article circulated internally at apple, the implication being that apple somehow copied sony. i've found that article here:
http://web.archive.org/web/20100119002641/http://www.businessweek.com/innovate/content/feb2006/id20060221_140419.htm

reading through it, i'm not really sure how it bolsters samsung's argument that "Apple's 'revolutionary' iPhone design was derived from the designs of a competitor — Sony." can you check with [Redacted] and give me some guidance on background?
